MEDIA RELEASE

Santa Claus Brings Health Tips and Vaccines to Aldine Area

HOUSTON (Nov. 28, 2007) – Ho, ho, ho! Come join Santa Claus as he gets health tips, health screenings and his immunizations at Aldine Health Center’s Holiday Health Fair on Dec. 15.

Just 10 days before his busiest night of the year, Santa will be making a special stop at Aldine Health Center to ensure he’s in tip-top shape for his tough delivery schedule – and he wants the Aldine community to be healthy, too.

Aldine Health Center’s holiday health fair offers the public (as well as Santa) one-stop convenience for health screenings and immunizations. Harris County Hospital District staff will provide screenings for blood pressure, blood glucose and cholesterol, along with many others. Flu and immunization shots will also be available at an affordable price.

Bring the kids to meet Santa and they’ll get surprises and a free pass to the Houston Zoo, along with their valuable health information and vaccines!

WHAT: Aldine Health Center Holiday Health Fair with Santa Claus

WHEN: 11 a.m.-1 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 15, 2007

WHERE: Aldine Health Center, 4755 Aldine Mail Route

The Harris County Hospital District is the public health care system for the nation’s third most-populous county. It provides more than one million health care visits each year to uninsured and underinsured residents of Harris County. The district operates Ben Taub General Hospital, Lyndon B. Johnson General Hospital, Quentin Mease Community Hospital, 12 community health centers, a dental center, eight school-based clinics, 13 homeless shelter clinics and four mobile health units.
